SEXLESSTRING EP

This record is released by PSICOTROPICODELIA MUSIC (this label that i never remember the name :)), anyway thanks to them to broadcast fine electronic music over internet and more locally in south america and brazil.

The Sexless string ep was made in may 2005, it's a kind of essay of electronic songs, a short album describing the fall of the humanity as a metaphor with the death of a dog. A Humanity. Trapped between the machine, the number and information, when body become data, and data bodies...when universe collapse and his own pets need to die ..

... no i m kidding :)...that's music... keep the message you like listening to it.

The Olympic Live was recorded in norway/oslo/parkteatret, and streamed ive in france. nice experience for a guy front his computer, but terribly frustrating when live is over and you would like share a beer with some french mate... ok norway, have pretty girlz, but the beer is too expensive I damned ass !

I would like to thanks everybody who support and enjoy (my) music... and specially someone ..

//ok maybe this cover will become obsolete, but anyway souvenir is souvenir, at same time maybe feelings are eternal. ... so must say i love ya, and i wish i ll be near ya as we woke up this morning ...when years after i will reread this text (that i ll progressively forget from now till then) !!!

ok ... I will stop to write, it maybe become too personal ...and...I dont wanna disturb you if you hear :)... so ... enjoy!
